Welcome

* Opening Carol "Joy to the World" # 246

Advent Lighting Ceremony Brian, Tammy, Kolt & Chloe Bullerman

Praise team: All creation lies in waiting, in the stillness of the night,
With hope anticipating the Advent of Eternal Light.

Leader: Advent is a time to proclaim.

All: Joy to the world, the Lord is come!

Leader: We proclaim a hope that is stronger than any trial.

All: Joy to the world, the Lord is come!

Leader: We proclaim a victory that is stronger than any defeat.

All: Joy to the world, the Lord is come!

Leader: We proclaim a peace that is stronger than any conflict.

All: Joy to the world, the Lord is come!

Leader: We proclaim a freedom that is stronger than any bondage.

All: Joy to the world, the Lord is come!

Leader: Tonight we light all of the candles. . . .

All Sing: We proclaim with hope for the morning Light, for the love of Christ to illuminate the night.
We proclaim with joy for the Savior's birth;
we proclaim with hope for peace on earth, peace on earth.

Leader: Let us pray: God in heaven, we thank you for guiding us through our Advent journey.
Through waiting, watching, preparing, and praising, we are now ready to proclaim.
Help us receive the glory of Christmas, as we celebrate and rejoice that you have come to us through the gift of Christ, our Savior and Redeemer. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord's Prayer (#895)

The Light of Christ

The Light of the World has come to give us his light for our lives.

While we sing the next Christmas Carol, glow-stick candles will be passed out to all. To activate, bend the candle until you hear a crack and give it a little shake. The glowing candles will represent the light of Christ coming into a dark world. On the last stanza of each verse of "Silent Night, Holy Night," please raise your candle high.

Thank you – members, guests, visitors – for worshiping with us tonight. May you have a blessed Christmas. Thank you also to everyone who participated in this service in some way - whether through music, or readings, or lighting candles – it has truly made this worship the experience of being the family of God together.

We welcome small children – help yourself to the "Busy Bags" in the back. The nursery is open for your convenience. It is located on the south side of the entryway.

Keep in your prayers this week: All who are coping with or healing from physical ailments; especially Anne Feist following knee surgery, Wanda Kothlow recuperating at home; Alan Yokiell; Sue Schuster, Rita Bebler, Joan Christian, Michelle Viesselman (Kent & Diane's daughter-in-law), and Bebo Getchell in their fight against cancer; all those grieving, hurting, and lonely; all those struggling with challenging life situations; all those serving in the military and their families and others away from home, especially during the holiday season.

E-Giving options for holiday visitors & members! During the holiday season, we extend a warm welcome to visiting families and friends. We offer convenient electronic giving options that help you make donations on a one-time or recurring basis. 1) Vanco Mobile is a free mobile app that lets you can give anytime, anywhere, right from your smartphone! You can choose whether to donate as a guest or set up an account that allows you to set up recurring donations, store payment information for future gifts and view giving history. 2) Online giving at www.opendoorsumc.org where you can also choose to give a one-time donation or set up an account for secure, convenient frequent giving.

Thank you for your generosity, and Merry Christmas from all of us!

Thank you for helping to make our sanctuary festive for this Christmas-time. Feel free to take your plant home with you any time after the 7:30 pm Christmas Eve service.

Dear United Methodist Church Family,

Thank you to the women of the church for helping serve the meal at Carrell Bathke's funeral. A special thank you to Pastor Chris, Jan Johanson, Sarah & Doug Hankerson, Sandy and Dean Youngblom. Thank you for all of your prayers and cards, flowers and memorials. We appreciate all that you did. Carrell will be deeply missed.

~ Sincerely, Carrell Bathke Family

A gift from Carrell Bathke – There are dove pins from Carrell's funeral. She wanted the children to have what was left, so please, help yourself to a pin.

Thank you for the cute card and kind words. Merry Christmas to all of you! ~ Jan Carlson

Wednesday Night Suppers are coming back! Yes, enjoy a night away from the kitchen and out with friends at church! John & Melissa Kruse have volunteered to cook for all of January. We will be asking for other volunteers for February and beyond. Serving will be from 5:00-6:00 each Wednesday and we'll ask for a free-will donation. Invite your friends or meet them here! And please consider volunteering as a Wednesday night cook!

Menu for January 5: Spaghetti and meatballs with garlic bread.

To give assistance in Kentucky: Please continue to hold victims, survivors and relief workers in your prayers and make a gift to UMCOR's U.S. Disaster Response and Recovery Fund. You can give directly to <https://umcmmission.org/advance-project/901670/> or make a check out to Open Doors UMC and write "UMCOR Disaster Response" in the memo line.

Year-End Giving: There are many ways you can give to your church that both helps the church in huge ways, while at the same time may offer considerable tax advantage to you. Gifts offering possible tax advantages to you while helping the church could include:

- Gifts of Commodities (corn, soybeans)
- Gifts of Cash
- Marketable Securities
- Bequests and Beneficiary Designations under revocable trusts, life insurance policies, commercial annuities, retirement plans
- Charitable Remainder Trusts or Charitable Lead Trusts

The last day to donate and be counted for this year's taxes is [postmarked by] December 31; however, our church office will be closed on December 31, so please have donations to the office by noon on December 30 in order to be deposited.
